

Heather Heinrichs Walker, MD, FACEP

Dr. Heather Heinrichs Walker was born and raised in Greensburg, Pennsylvania. Dr. Walker is an Alumnus of both Blessed Sacrament Cathedral School and Greensburg Central Catholic High School. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Pittsburgh with a Bachelor of Liberal Arts in Science, Medicine and Health Care. She went on to attend the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, graduating as an MD in 1999. Dr. Walker completed the University of Pittsburgh Affiliated Residency in Emergency Medicine in 2002, where she served as Chief Resident.

Dr. Walker returned home to join Westmoreland Emergency Medicine Specialists in July 2002, and continues her full time position there. She was named the Excelsior Health and Mutual Aid Ambulance Medical Director in 2006. She was named a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians in 2007. Dr. Walker became the Assistant Director of the Emergency Department at Westmoreland Hospital in 2015.

Those of you who know her well, know that Heather's time as Mrs. Walker is the best part of her life. She has been married to her husband, Brad, since 1998, and they are blessed to be parents to Sean, a third grade student at Aquinas Academy. Her free time is spent enjoying many sports, but especially those played by Sean and those involving the University of Pittsburgh. She loves spending time with both her immediate and large extended family, carrying on family traditions. She also enjoys, cooking, photography and her flower and vegetable gardens.
